NEGOTIATIONS

Section H contains policies and regulations related to negotiating with bargaining units recognized by the school board and authorized under state law.

Arlington School District 38-1	NEPN Code: HA
School Board Policy Reference Manual

NEGOTIATIONS GOALS

The Board recognizes that education is a public trust; it therefore is dedicated to providing the best possible educational opportunities for the young people of this community. In negotiations, this objective may be best attained if there is a climate of mutual trust and understanding between the negotiating parties.

The Board believes that the best interests of public education will be served by establishing procedures that provide an orderly method for the Board and representatives of the staff to discuss matters of common concern.

It is further recognized that nothing in negotiations should compromise the Board's legal responsibilities, nor should any employee's statutory rights and privileges be impaired.

NEGOTIATIONS LEGAL STATUS

The Board negotiates salary and other conditions of employment with employee groups under requirements and subject to limitations set forth in the state law.

Under the South Dakota Codified Laws, public employees—including members of the teaching profession—may join or refuse to join without prejudice any organization for professional or economic improvement. Representatives of the teachers and the Board will meet at reasonable times to negotiate with respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of employment, and other conditions of employment; to confer in good faith; and to attempt to negotiate an agreement.

Support personnel are given the right to organize and to join any employee organization and to bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing. The Board has the duty to confer in good faith with respect to wages, hours, and other conditions of employment, and to attempt to negotiate an agreement.

These laws state further that anything therein "does not compel either party to agree to a proposal or require the making of a concession."

SCOPE OF NEGOTIATIONS

In accordance with state law, the Board will negotiate with officially recognized employee bargaining groups on the following items: wages, salary, and other conditions of employment. Other mutually agreed-upon terms and conditions of professional service may also be negotiated as determined by the Board.

SCHOOL BOARD NEGOTIATING POWERS AND DUTIES

The Board has a duty to bargain in good faith with recognized staff units on wages and other conditions of employment. It also has the privilege to refuse to negotiate in certain areas.

The Board will not:

1. Interfere with, restrain, or coerce employees in the exercise of their right to organize.
2. Dominate, interfere or assist with the formation, existence, or administration of any employees' bargaining agent, or contribute to its financial support.
3. Discriminate in employment or tenure or in any condition of employment to encourage or discourage membership in any employee organization.
4. Discharge or otherwise discriminate with regard to any employee because he signed or filed any affidavit, petition, or complaint pursuant to the negotiations law.
5. Refuse to negotiate in good faith.
6. Fail or refuse to comply with any provision of state law relating to negotiations.

BOARD NEGOTIATING AGENTS

The Board is ultimately responsible for negotiating with employee units. Prior to commencement of any negotiations, the Board--with the assistance of the Superintendent--will decide whether to appoint a labor lawyer, a professional negotiator, or a representative from within the school district to serve as the Board's chief negotiator. The balance of the Board's negotiating team will be selected by the Board with assistance from the Superintendent.

The fee or salary for a professional negotiator will be established by the Board at the time of appointment.

Negotiations will be conducted only as directed by the Board. No agreement will be effective until the Board has accepted it and officially designated its representatives to sign it.

BOARD NEGOTIATING AGENTS - (Regulation)

APPOINTMENT OF A PROFESSIONAL NEGOTIATOR

The negotiator's fees or salary will be established at the time of appointment.

The duties of the negotiator will be mutually agreed upon, and may include the following:

1. Serve as chief spokesman in negotiations with recognized or certified bargaining units to arrive at a mutually satisfactory agreement on wages, hours, and working conditions of employees represented by the units, and at any fact finding proceedings related thereto.
2. Direct accumulation of necessary data needed for negotiations, such as comparative information.
3. Follow guidelines set forth by the Board as to acceptable agreements and will report on the progress of negotiations.
4. Make recommendations to the Board as to acceptable agreements.
5. Interpret the signed negotiated agreements to administrators.
6. Serve as the official designee of the superintendent when the grievance procedure reaches the level of the superintendent.
7. Plan, organize, direct, and represent the district in arbitrations involving agreements.

NEGOTIATIONS PROCEDURES

Following the granting of recognition to an organization to represent an employee unit, the Board, through its designated representatives, will meet with the representatives of the organization to negotiate and attempt to reach agreement on matters pertaining to salaries, terms, and conditions of employment, and processing of alleged grievances.

INITIATION OF NEGOTIATIONS

The Board will make an effort to begin negotiations well in advance of contract issuance. A written request to begin negotiations will be sent to the employee unit representatives, and reasonable time will be given to the representatives to respond to the Board's request.

TIME AND PLACE OF NEGOTIATIONS

Negotiations meetings will be scheduled at times which will interfere least with school schedules and the educational program. They will be conducted at times and places mutually agreeable to the negotiators named by each party. At the first meeting, the date and location of the subsequent meeting will be scheduled, and so on. Meeting schedules will be realistic.

2020-2021 (update to current year)

Ground rules for certified negotiations between the Teachers’ Negotiating Body and the Arlington School Board. (Board)

1. Meetings will be held at a time and length mutually agreed upon by both parties. Meetings will occur as often as deemed necessary by the negotiation team members.
2. At the conclusion of each meeting, a future time and location for additional meetings will be agreed upon by both parties.

CONDUCT OF NEGOTIATIONS

Individual Board members cannot negotiate privately with representatives of any employee unit. Each negotiating team will be limited to a specific number of individuals determined jointly by the Board and the negotiating organization.

The Superintendent may attend the negotiation sessions as a resource for the board.

During negotiations, the representatives of the Board and the organizations will present relevant data, exchange points-of-view, and make proposals and counterproposals. Upon the request of either party, the other will make available for inspection its records and data pertinent to the subject of negotiations. Each time the board brings a package it is an all or nothing package. If each item is not accepted as a package the board reserves the right to withdraw their offer or to alter the proposal.

1. The board may use the administrations and school attorney as a resource. The Teachers' Negotiating Body may use their members and their own legal representation as a resource.
2. The Board and Teachers' Negotiating Body may choose to be represented by their legal counsel. However, if either party intends to have legal counsel present, they shall notify the other party of the legal representation at least 48 hours before the meeting.

Formal negotiations between the parties will be conducted in closed session, unless an open session is agreed upon by both parties.

It is the responsibility of each negotiations team to keep its own records of the proceedings. No electronic devices will be allowed by the Board.

If one party calls for a caucus, that party will move to another location for its caucus. Each party will determine which representatives may be present at its caucus (15 minutes set as a guideline for maximum length of caucus).

COMMUNICATIONS

Press releases regarding negotiations progress are the responsibility of each team (will be upon JOINT AGREEMENT between the Board and the Teachers' Negotiating Body). The Board will have the responsibility of communicating on a continuous basis to the community.

REACHING AGREEMENT

All tentative agreements will be written and initialed by spokesperson of the respective negotiating teams. Agreements will be tentative until approved by the employee organization and adopted by the Board.

PRELIMINARY NEGOTIATED AGREEMENT DISPOSITION

If a tentative settlement is reached between an employee organization and the Board, the designated representatives of both parties will recommend ratification by their respective groups. If either the Board or the employee organization memberships fail to ratify the tentative agreement, negotiations will be continued for a specified period of time in an effort to work out differences locally, prior to declaring impasse and commencing conciliation or fact-finding procedures.

IMPASSE PROCEDURES

In the event the Board and the employee negotiation teams are unable to reach agreement, and an impasse exists, the conciliation and fact-finding procedures outlined in state law may be requested by either party. The notice of an impasse must be in writing.

If neither party requests intervention by the Department of Labor and Regulations within 10 calendar days after impasse is reached, the Board will assume negotiations are completed and will institute the provisions of the Board's last offer.

Within five days of receipt of a fact-finders report, both parties will meet to discuss the report.

In case of failure to reach agreement after full use of conciliation and mediation, the Board will be responsible to make such decisions necessary for the operation of the school system.

EMPLOYEE CONTRACT OBLIGATIONS

By state law, it is illegal for any employee of the district to engage in a strike, withhold services, and be absent without leave or authorization, or decline to perform all of his duties and responsibilities.

So that the educational programs of the district will function without interruption, the Board will ensure that contracts that are in force with the district are fulfilled. If necessary, legal recourse will be taken by the Board to fulfill its obligations and responsibilities to the citizens of the district.

Any employee who conducts themselves in a manner that is disruptive to the educational programs of the district and/or violates the provisions of their contract with the district subjects themselves willfully to the legal recourses available to the Board.

It is the responsibility of every administrator to ensure that the obligations and responsibilities of the Board are fulfilled as the Board directs.
